CRIME AND CASUALTY.

A Fight Between Texas Railroad Directors—Bagging Factory Burnt—Crime in Oregon—Murdered by Bandits.

MURDERED BY BANDITS.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 5.—A dispatch from Tucson, Arizona, reports that J. H. Adams and Cornelius Finley were murdered at Davidson's Canon last Monday by Mexican bandits. Adams was an ex sheriff of Santa Clara county, and, became famous in his search after Vasquez. Finley was formerly county clerk of Santa Clara county, and at the time of his death he was superintendent of the Washington mine, Arizona.

BAGGING FACTORY BURNED.

CLEVELAND, O., September 5.—The Leader's Alliance, O., special says that about 4 o'clock this afternoon the Alliance bagging factory was entirely destroyed by fire with the exception of the engine room and office. Loss, $50,000; insured for $20,000. The fire originated in the carding room from friction of machinery.

A RAILROAD ROW.

GALVESTON, September 5.—A special from Dallas to the News says Ira Harris and J. W. Colden, the former a receiver of the Dallas and Wichita railroad, and the latter its manager, were met on the street yesterday by Painter, Obenchain and Rosser, ex-directors of the road. Words passed between Harris and Rosser, when Harris struck Rosser with his fist, and was knocked down by that person with a cane. Rosser and began shooting at Colder, who was standing a little aloof. Obenchain and Painter also drew weapons and opened fire upon Colder, who fell mortally wounded. His last act was to draw a pistol and fire ineffectually at his assailants. The ex-directors surrendered themselves to Sheriff Harris unhurt. The supposed cause is railroad complications.

CRIME IN OREGON.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 5.—A dispatch from Portland says Archie Brown, one of the men engaged in the recent robbery of the pawn-broker shop, accompanied by murder, has been arrested. He confesses the crime. Johnson, the third party, is still at large, but capture is expected daily.

An old man named Wilson was recently murdered while on a hunting expedition. His head and limbs were cut off and his remains otherwise mutilated, evidently to throw suspicion on the Indians: but Wilson's son in-law, Joseph Coffman, has been arrested for the crime. The evidence against him is almost conclusive. The object was robbery.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

A Vatican Visit to Perugia—Publishing the Awards to be Stopped—A Marrying Priest.

ITALY.

THE PAPAL CHOIR TO PERUGIA.

LONDON, September 5.—Roman advices state that Cardinal Monaco La Valletta will go to Perugia to represent the pope at the consecration of a church at Canoscio. The whole pontifical choir will be sent expressly by the pope to render the ceremony as imposing as possible and will follow the cardinal. The Osservatore Romano draws attention to the fact that this will be the first time the singers of the pontifical choir will have left Rome. The Times correspondent at Rome remarks that the significance of this delegation as what may be considered toward breaking, at least in spirit, the imprisonment idea, is evident.

THE FIRST STEP

A MARRYING PRIEST.

A special to the Times from Paris says Herr Rinks, an old Catholic priest at Heidelberg, has just been married. The Bavarian old Catholics do not accept the recent decision of the synod for the abolition of celibacy.

GERMANY.

ULTRAMONTANE IMPRACTICABILITY.

Special dispatch to The Constitution

LONDON, September 6.—A dispatch from Rome to the Standard says two thirds of the ultramontane members elect of the German reichstag gave notice of their intention to oppose the government even if it comes to an understanding with the vatican.

GREECE.

A NOTICE TO THE PORTE.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

LONDON, September 6.—A Reuter's Constantinople dispatch says that Greece has notified the porte that she will invoke the mediation of the powers if she does not receive a reply to her memorandum by Friday.

FRANCE.

THE QUESTION OF WEIGHTS.

PARIS, September 5.—The international congress on weights and measures, and coins, to-day, unanimously adopted a resolution deploring the fact that England, Russia and the United States had not yet adopted the metric system. The American and English delegates afterwards met and passed a resolution respectfully petitioning the English and American governments to appoint a mixed commissioner to consider the adoption of a metric system by both countries.

THE PUBLICATION OF THE AWARDS.

PARIS, September 5.—The Journal des Debats says: A meeting of the presidents of groups at the exposition at which M. Teisserene deBort, minister of commerce, was president, declared strongly against publishing the list of awards prior to the distribution ceremony, and insisted on a removal of announcements put up by certain exhibitors of their having been accorded prizes. The announcements are based on indiscreet or accidental information. The resolution, though not binding on the supreme jury or council of presidents, will exercise great influence upon its decisions. There is an impression that to compensate exhibitors for the late publication of awards the closing of the exhibition will be deferred three weeks, with liberty during the last ten days to deliver immediately any article sold.

GREAT BRITAIN.

SALISBURY'S MISSION.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

LONDON, September 6.—A Paris correspondent of the Daily News states that Salisbury comes to Paris to ascertain how France would regard the more direct intervention of England with Turkish affairs. It has even been reported that the sultan has transferred to England soveranty over Egypt. These reports are highly sensational and are unreliable.

THE DEAD AND DYING

ATLANTA PROVES HER IMMUNITY FROM YELLOW FEVER.

The Shadow of Death and the Gloom of Despair—Pestilence and Starvation in the Afflicted Cities—Unable to Bury the Dead—Generous Responses to the Cry for Aid.

THE BRAND CASE.

A PROOF THAT YELLOW FEVER CANNOT LIVE IN ATLANTA.

Our readers will remember that some time ago, a Mr Brand reached this city prostrated with the yellow fever. He fell into the hands of Dr Jno G Westmoreland, and that noble man, determined to protect him against the panic that his arrival had created. He took him after many adventures to his own office, where he said he would protect him if necessary at the peril of his life. The unfortunate young man died after a few days, although everything that could be done was done to relieve him.

WITH HIS HEART OF GOLD,

THE LESSON OF THAT CASE

A great deal of interest has been felt in the outcome of that case, because a good deal depended on it. In the first place, it would settle the question as to whether or not yellow fever was contagious. In the second place, as to whether or not it could spread in Atlanta. We promised at that time to give the public the full facts in the case. We have simply waited until the fourteen days, which is the limit of time in which the fever may possibly develop, had expired.

The time was out on yesterday, and this reporter called on Dr. Westmoreland. We found the old veteran in the best of humor and in a condition of physical health that was absolutely exhilarating. He knew what was coming, and with a twinkle in his brave gray eye, opened the conversation with,

"I'm not dead yet."

"Has the fever had time to work?" we asked.

"More than time. It usually develops in eight days—often less. I have given it fourteen days, which is the outside possible limit. I have had no symptoms of sickness, but actually feel better than usual. My nurses are in the same condition. So that we have absolutely demonstrated that yellow fever is not contagious."

"Did you give this case a full trial?"

"I did. I felt that if yellow fever was contagious, after all I had said—if I had actually been deceiving the people—that I deserved to catch it; and ought to die. I, therefore, determined to give it a full trial. I staid in the room with my patient all day. I even slept in the room with him all night, with the black vomit all about me, and the room thoroughly impregnated. I unpacked his clothes and handled them freely: I touched the patient, nursed him, and waited on him till he was dead. I had two nurses, who went through the same ordeal with me, and they both came out unscathed. Dr. Johnson went through even worse than that. He was with us all the time, and held the patient's head while he was vomiting. He is now in perfect health. If there is anything that is absolutely demonstrated it is that yellow fever is not contagious."

"This, however," the doctor went on to say, "is no new discovery. I simply have given it this new test to assure the panicky people of this city. It was demonstrated time and again in the epidemic of '54 '76 etc. Why, it was demonstrated three weeks ago, in this city."

"How was that?" we asked

"There was a man from Memphis who was taken sick at one of our leading hotels. I was sent for and soon discovered that he had yellow fever. I informed the proprietor of the hotel, and assured him that there was no danger. He allowed me to attend him quietly, in his room. He was well in eight days, and nobody knows it to this day, except a very few persons"

"What will be the result of your experiment?"

Why it will dispel the foolish notion about yellow fever being carried about in clothes or packages, or letters. It will tend to lift unnecessary quarantines—to relieve the paralyzation of commerce, and it will convince the people of Atlanta that there is no danger in obeying the dictates of humanity and throwing open her hotels, boarding houses and private houses if need be, to these unfortunates.

"You consider it impossible then for the fever to be bred here?"

"Absolutely, there is nothing here to feed it on. It is a malarial fever, and must have malaria. There is no malaria here. There are four degrees of malarial fever—chills, bilious fever, congestive (or pernicious) fever, and yellow fever. Nor we can not breed even the first phase of this fever here. I have never seen over three or four cases of chills that originated in this city, and those were due to some peculiar local cause, No, sir; it is absolutely impossible for us to have malarial fever here, and we need not fear it. So I think we ought to open our doors to the yellow fever patients and invite them to come here and make this their asylum. Chattanooga has done it and with no more safety than Atlanta could do it."

THE WORK IN ATLANTA.

COME UP WITH CONTRIBUTIONS.

It is time for our people to do their best for the yellow fever sufferers. The dispatches constantly give worse and worse accounts of the fever, until now it is sickening to read of all over the stricken districts. The reports say the people there need everything, and we who are fortunately free from the scourge must answer their appeals for help.

Every day contributions come in from various sources, but we must have more. The fever gets worse and worse, and it must not be allowed to increase the number of its victims because there is no provision for the wants of the afflicted. The local committee of relief is doing its work well, and every day any of its members will receive contributions of all kinds to be sent to the sufferers.

Money is of course always acceptable Don't stand back because you can't give as much as somebody else. Send in all sorts of contributions, from the smallest to the largest.

If you can better send supplies, don't hesitate to do so. The Southern Express company has nobly agreed to carry all supplies free in addition to giving one thousand dollars to the relief of the sufferers.

If you have any article of household furniture or of any nature whatsoever that you are willing to give, send it to Hall & Morris, Marietta street, and Mr D P Ellis will sell it at auction free of commission and send the money to the sufferers. Surely all our people can come to some of the conditions. Let not the work of charity be left to a few. All should claim a part in it. Atlanta has raised about $1,500 up to date. She ought to send before Saturday night. The burden would never be felt and the deed would be as precious to us who give as to those who receive Monday night a company of ladies and gentlemen will give the beautiful comedy "Married Life" at the opera house for the benefit of the sufferers.

LET THE OPERA HOUSE BE FULL

Tickets are only fifty cents, and an evening of rare pleasure is offered for that sum. All the money will go to the sufferers There are no expenses owing to the kindness of the gentlemen who are aiding in the success of the project The entertainment ought to bring in $500 and it will if our people will only look at it properly.

APPEAL TO COLORED PEOPLE.

The suffering among the colored people in the districts afflicted by the yellow fever is terrible. They are stricken down by hundreds and are dying by scores every day. Our colored citizens should come up to the aid of their fellows who are so needing help. There are thousands of colored people here, many of whom are well to do and can afford to help the sufferers. Nearly all could give something Will not some of our public-spirited and intelligent colored friends take the lead in this matter. If a subscription list were properly presented to the colored people here there is no doubt that a could be raised for the relief of the colored sufferers. Let the matter be taken hold of at once.

CONSIDERABLE SUM

The following circular has been issued by the Grand Dictator K. of H, of Georgia:

Grand Lodge of Georgia, K of H., office of Grand Dictator. Augusta, Ga, September 3, 1878, Officers and members of subordinate lodges under the jurisdiction of this grand lodge: Brothers: A call for aid comes to us from our "brothers in distress," in Memphis, Tenn., and other cities, where the yellow fever is now raging, and it is our duty, as Knights of Honor, to "respond promptly" to that call. This call for aid is one that every citizen feels willing and anxious to respond to, and we, as members of a society whose principal aim and object is "mutual aid," should show more zeal and more generosity when we know that our brothers are calling for aid—when we know that this call is made from actual necessity, actual want, actual distress. I therefore appeal to you as knights of a generous brotherhood to come to the assistance of our brothers who are compelled to remain in these cities of the plague "Do unto others as ye would have them do unto you." I make this appeal at the solicitation of several of the lodges in the state, who think it advisable to have the contributions of each lodge consolidated into a general grand lodge fund, and distributed in such localities as the most needy knights may be found. Contributions sent to this office will be duly acknowledged, and a detailed report made of same at the annual session of the grand lodge.

Asking your prompt and generous attention to this request, I have the honor to remain very truly yours in O M. A.,

SAMUEL H. SHEPARD,
Grand Dictator K. of H. of Georgia.

A GOOD IDEA.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I have frequently thought that at a time of such great calamity as at present prevailing in the fever stricken sections of our land, it would not be inadvisable, in addition to the more public mode of collecting charitable offerings, to have at some safe and convenient places boxes placed, say at your office and other points, where the charitably inclined might quietly and unobtrusively have an opportunity of depositing their mite, such receptacle to be easily accessible, and proper notice given. Many a one prefers to give in secret. What think you?

NEW ORLEANS, September 5.-L J. Webster, Mrs. E. W. Barnes and three children have the fever. The following explain themselves:

NEW ORLEANS, September 5-To the Steamboat Interests throughout the Country: A steamboat men's relief association has just been organized here to give aid to such of our brethren and their families, regardless of where they may hail from, as may require it. TO THE HOMEOPATHISTS.

ALBERT VOORHEES President.

KELLOGG AS A GHOUL.

WASHINGTON, September 5—A telegram was received in this city to-day from Mr. George Nicholson, business manager of the New Orleans Picayune, implicitly repelling all intimations that there are any jealousies between the different benevolent associations in New Orleans in the distributions of supplies and funds for the sick. Mr. Nicholson is authorized in making this statement by the presidents of the Howard association, the Young Men's Christian association and the Peabody subsistence association. The explanation is brought out by Senator Kellogg's suggestions to the secretary of war, that the rations furnished by the war department for the benefit of the sufferers in New Orleans, be distributed by the collector of the port at that city.

MEMPHIS.

FORTY-EIGHT INTERMENTS.

MEMPHIS, September 5.—Forty eight yellow fever interments up to noon today. Mother Alfonzo, superior of St. Agnes academy, is in a dying condition. George Crook, a prominent Odd Fellow, is dead.

NINETY-TWO INTERMENTS.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

MEMPHIS, September 6.—Only 35 new cases were reported to-day. Very few physicians are making reports There were 92 interments; whites, 61; colored, 31; yellow fever deaths 89. Dr. Averte and Dr. Brown, secretary of the board of health, are sick; also Charles Nundinger, A. R. Hames, druggist, and Henry White, business manager of the Appeal. Martin Keyer, one of the volunteer telegraph operators from Louisville, died to-night and John Connelly and Edward Gibson, operators, were stricken to-day. The force is greatly reduced. The force of compositors on the morning papers is two each. Owing to the inability of the county undertaker to bury the pauper dead, a citizen's relief committee to day took the matter in hand, districted the city and employed undertakers and a force to assist them in finding and burying the dead.

JACKSON.

AID ACKNOWLEDGED.

JACKSON, MISS., September 5—Grand Secretary Power makes the following acknowledgment of relief received through him as grand secretary of the masons, and grand treasurer of the odd fellows: "I have received during the past two weeks nearly $10,000, chiefly from masons and odd fellows, in nearly every state in the union. This has been distributed through the proper committees in Grenada, Vicksburg, Port Gibson and Canton, and the same has been gratefully acknowledged. No other place in Mississippi has required assistance to this date, but the fever has just broken out with great violence at Greenville, and reports from Holly Springs indicate an epidemic there soon. Nearly two thousand persons are prostrate in Vicksburg. In Port Gibson there are 460 cases to date. In Grenada, all die who are attacked, and none seem to escape. The pestilence has six weeks to run, and thousands must yet go to the grave, leaving woe and want behind them. Among the surrounding gloom comes material aid and loving words from our brethren everywhere, and the great American heart seems to have asserted its humanity as never before. All assistance sent through me will be acknowledged by return mail."

VICKSBURG.

THIRTY-EIGHT DEATHS.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

VICKSBURG, September 6—Dr. P. F. Whitehead died this morning. Dr. A. A. Green, colored, died to-day. The sexton has orders for 38 interments up to 12 this evening. God knows where it will stop. George A. Burns, an express agent, is dying. Everybody is appalled.

TEN DEATHS.

GRENADA, September 5.—Ten deaths in the last 24 hours. There is no change in affairs. Hummel is quite sick.

BROWNSVILLE.

OF THE MOST VIRULENT CHARACTER.

BROWNSVILLE, September 5.—The yellow fever is of the most virulent character and kills people very soon after they are attacked. Not a single case so far has recovered. Maj. W. K Bennett, a well known citizen, is now down with but little hope of recovery. Dr. J. H. Howell is said to be very sick this morning Mr. Petters, of Memphis, is also in a very critical condition. Numerous other cases, all originating here, are afflicted with this dreadful disease. There have been thirteen burials up to last night. The following are the deaths: Miss Edna Lee, A. J. Keyce, Simon Selig, Mrs McIntosh, James C. Gordon, Frank C. Hughes, a child of F. Doarn, Ben Bailey, colored, James, colored, and four others. The prospect, this morning, is very gloomy. Everybody is alarmed and people have fled as from a besom of destruction. Brownsville asks her friends for help. Nobody left in the city but the poorer classes and negroes. The Howards have 24 cases under their care, and have to do the burying and nursing.

Mr. Theodore Havemeyer sent $1,000 to Congressman Gibson, of New Orleans, who is now in this city, asking him to distribute it among such as need assistance, but will not seek it. In the first and second districts Joyce and Tyler are probably elected by the usual majorities for off years. There is probably no election for the third district. In thirty-two towns, Farlow, greenbacker and bolter, has 4,998; Grout, republican, 3,503; Waterman, democrat, 1,952. Burlington elects a democratic representative.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, September 5.—Returns from 156 towns give the following vote for governor: Proctor, republican, 27,374; Bingham, democrat, 12,609; Martin, greenbacker, 1,052; scattering, 708 The 85 towns to hear from, in 1876, gave Fairbanks, republican, 11,732, and Bingham, democrat, 16,746. In the first congressional district, 53 towns gave Joyce, republican, 9,042, Randal, democrat, 5,559. In the second district, 62 towns give Tyler, republican, 10,195; Dickey, democrat, 3,942. In the third district, 12 towns to hear from, the vote is Groat, republican, 6,099; Waterman, democrat, 3,203; Barlow, bolter and greenbacker, 8,908. Barlow's friends are confident of his election by a small majority. The town representatives elected as far as known are: republicans, 104; democrats, 19; independents, 4; greenbackers, 55. In several towns no choice was made.

A Tammany Address.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

NEW YORK, September 6—The Tammany hall general committee issued an address last night of the condition of affairs throughout the city and country. The address sets forth that the great want of the country is trade and an increased demand for products of all kinds, deploring the mischievous meddling with the currency by the republican congresses for six years, and holding the republican party responsible for inflation of the currency, demonitization of silver, shrinkage of values and the stricken condition of our commerce, protesting against giving the people's land to corporations, and urging the people to vote the democratic ticket.

The Carolina Railroad Case.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 5.-The South Carolina railroad case was continued this morning. Ex-Governor Chamberlain read the bill of complaint, and answer of the railroad was made by A. T. Smythe

Burned.

CLEVELAND, September 5.—A special from Alliance, Ohio, says the Alliance bagging factory burned yesterday. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $20,000.

The Blue and the Gray.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

LOUISVILLE, September 6—The reunion of federal and confederate soldiers to day was very successful.

LONDON, September 5.-John Eastwood & Sons, worsted spinners and manufacturers, of Luddenden, near Halifax, Yorkshire, failed to-day. Liabilities, $75,000.

Special dispatch to The Constitution.

LONDON, September 6—The announcement was made yesterday that three of the largest cotton mills in Blackburn would close in a fortnight. Notification has been given that three others will work on short time.

NOW, BY ST. PAUL!

Mr. Hayes Discourses upon the Westward Tide, the Public Debt, the Present Depression, the Paths of Daddies, and Kindred Matter.

ST. PAUL, September 5—The president was enthusiastically received this morning. The city is in holiday attire The president breakfasted with Gov. Ramsey. This afternoon the president was introduced to citizens at the fair grounds and after acknowledging the kindness of the reception, made with reference generally to the financial condition and the public debt, which the president said more than one-fourth of has been paid off in thirteen years, and it is demonstrated, he said, that the United States can and will pay the national debt. Since the panic of five years ago there has been in the condition of the debt. The change has been one of improvement: first, the debt has been greatly reduced; second, the interest to be paid has been largely diminished, and third, it is to be paid at home instead of abroad. Further on the president said coin and paper are practically abreast of each other. The fluctuations in the value of the paper dollar has not, in the last five months, exceeded the fraction of a cent. The total increase in the coin value of our paper currency since 1865 is about $175,000,000 Nothing connected with the financial affairs of the government is more interesting and instructive than the state of

A SPEECH UPON PUBLIC AFFAIRS

A GREAT CHANGE

TRADE WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES,

Exports from United States, during the year ending June 30, 1778, were larger than during any previous year in the history of the country. From the year 1863 till 1873 the net imports into the United States largely exceeded exports from the United States, the excess of imports ranging from $39,000,000 to $182,000,000 During the years 1874 and 1875 exports and imports were about equal; during the years ending June 30, 1876-'77-'78, however, the domestic exports from the United States greatly exceeded the net imports, the excess of exports increasing rapidly from year to year. Concluding, the president said: With diminished and still

DIMINISHING PUBLIC BURDENS

of debt, expenditures and interest, and with an improved condition of the currency and foreign trade we may well hope that we are on the threshold of better times. But we must not forget that the surest foundation of a restored financial prosperity is a sound constitutional currency and unstained national credit.

WESTWARD THE COURSE OF EMPIRE, ETC.

Special dispatch to The Constitution

There is another interesting subject that is worth giving attention to, and I think it is encouraging and full of hope. The surplus population of the Atlantic slope states are finding their way as they never have before, to the beautiful states and territories at the west. [Applause] And what does that mean? It means relief to the east. The surplus population that goes off gives a better opportunity for the employment of labor and industry there; and here in the new states they are making their homes, and they are furnishing them a market for the supplies from the old states; but it has more than a double advantage—they are three advantages: it relieves the states, it furnishes a market to the old states, and with their products in the new states they help to

SWELL THE TIDE OF EXPORT

to the old countries. That is what this change of population means. You know much more about it than I do. You have lived here and seen it, and now this movement of population, what is it doing here? We see three great states—one in the distant south, one in the centre and the other here. There is Texas, an empire in itself, receiving larger numbers of population, perhaps, than we have received in any state during the present decade, having sugar, cotton, wheat and cattle. There is the state of Kansas,

THE PIONEER IN THE GREAT STRUGGLE,

which dedicated all America to freedom and the stars and stripes forever. [Boisterous and prolonged applause] She is having her share of this prosperity, and Minesota I need not say, "God bless Minnesota." He is blessing her. [Renewed applause.] And here let us remember what great blessings we have. It is not merely material prosperity, it is not merely great crops of wheat and corn, and great numbers of cattle, but the faces I see around me show that is upon this community, or perhaps ever can be, while down your noble river affliction is spread over all that country. We admire and sympathize with the noble men and women, who, as physicians and nurses, are carrying succor to Grenada and Memphis and New Orleans, and the other cities afflicted, and I am told that you of Minnesota of your abundance propose today to do something of your share towards giving

NO SHADOW OF PESTILENCE

RELIEF TO THOSE STRICKEN COMMUNITIES.

(Applause.) Now, my friends, with this picture, as I think, so full of hope for the future for you, and as individuals, I do not venture with confidence upon predictions of prosperity reviving. I have no spirit of prophecy, but reasoning. Let us see how it stands. The debt is a great burden upon labor and capital. It is greatly diminished, and still diminishing. Taxation is a great burden upon labor and capital, and it is greatly diminished, and is still diminishing, so too as to the expense of the government, and then with that which helps us coming and immigration coming, may a not confidently say that these are indications at least that we are marching to the threshold of reviving general business prosperity. (Great applause) And now shall we look around for a new way to pay old debts, or shall we march in the paths marked out by the fathers?—the paths of honesty, of industry, of economy: shall we do what Washington and Franklin would advise? That is the question before the people to-day. My friends, I enter upon no argument of a disputed question, but I say, as my opinion, we may be mistaken, all of us, but I believe that a restored financial condition depends largely upon an honest currency. (Great applause) And why do I say this? The commerce of the world is the commerce now in which we are taking part, and that is the same thing the globe around.

A SOUND CURRENCY

Fire in Omaha.

NEW YORK, September 5—A special dispatch from Omaha says the Grand Central hotel, which cost nearly $400,000, and the Herald building, worth $50,000. burned last night insured. At midnight the fire was still raging, and other valuable property in danger. The supply of water, which is obtained from cisterns, failed, except at a distance of a half mile. Several firemen were injured, one fatally.

Colonel Gillespie, of Mobile, Dead.

MOBILE, September 5.—Colonel A. J. Gillespie, president of the cotton exchange, died this evening.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.

DECISIONS RENDERED SEPTEMBER 3, 1878.

Hon. Hiram Warner, Chief Justice. Hons. Logan E. Bleckley, and James Jackson, Associate Justices

REPORTED FOR THE CONSTITUTION BY HENRY JACKSON, SUPREME COURT REPORTER.

Haines vs. Richardson. Claim of illegality, from Lee.

BLECKLEY, J.

1. In dismissing an affidavit of illegality interposed to a mortgage fi fa, the ground of dismissal being that the affidavit was returned into court without an order from the judge, it was mere surplusage to add, "with leave to the defendant to apply for such order." Leave to apply thus granted could neither enlarge the legal rights of one party, nor restrict those of the other.

2. In a mortgage fi fa, the property was not set out as the property of the defendant or mortgagor, and the entire description was in these terms: "The one head of horses, two head of mules, one buggy and harness, one wagon." The fi fa was properly quashed, on motion of the defendant, for insufficiency of the description.

Judgment affirmed.

S. C Elam, for plaintiff in error.
C. B. Wooten, for defendant.

Taylor vs. Scott et al. Complaint, from Sumter.

BLECKLEY, J.

1. Certain promissory notes setting out crop liens, being made in 1874, two of the makers being sureties for the third, though not so appearing on the face of the writings, and the fact of the suretyship being known to the creditor and one of the sureties having signed on the faith of the creditor's promise that he (the creditor) would apply the principal's crop of that year to these particular notes, and said surety having communicated such promise to the other before the latter signed, and both having thus signed on the faith of the promise, the creditor was bound to make the application accordingly, and his failure to do so discharged the sureties, the crop being of sufficient value to pay all the notes.

2. It was no excuse for the creditor that a partnership, of which he was a member, took, afterwards, crop liens upon the same crop of the principal, for advances made to produce the crop, and that, under these liens, the crop was delivered by the principal to the partnership, and that the creditor, as an individual, did not in fact receive the crop, and consequently had no power to appropriate it to his individual claims. As a partner, he should not have entered into obligations conflicting with his prior undertaking as an individual.

Judgment affirmed.

Guerry & Son; Cook & Hollis, for plaintiff in error.
Hawkins & Hawkins, for defendant.

Chappell vs. Boyd. Complaint, from Webster.

BLECKLEY, J.

1. When the wife sues her husband's creditor, in an action of complaint for money had and received by the creditor for the wife's use, the fact being that the money was paid by the husband to the creditor, on a debt of the husband, the creditor knowing that it was the wife's money, the husband need not be made a party defendant—certainly not, unless there is a plea for abatement for non-joinder. Chit. Pl. 46; 54 Ga., 537.

2. It is not a lawful investment of the wife's money by the husband for the latter to buy land, give his two notes for the purchase money, take a bond for titles to himself, and when the first note becomes due, pay it off with money belonging to the wife, giving the creditor notice that it is his wife's money, and leaving the other note unpaid, and the legal title in the vendor, he (the husband) retaining the bond for titles, with no transfer of the same to his wife, or to any person for her use.

3 Where the husband paid the wife's money on his own debt for land, and then conveyed the land to her, leaving half of the purchase money unpaid, he having only a bond for titles, she is not estopped by accepting the deed from suing the vendor for her money, the conveyance from her husband to her never having been allowed or approved by a court of competent jurisdiction.

4 A claim to the land, interposed by the wife in resistance to a levy made upon it as the husband's property for a balance of the purchase money, and a verdict and judgment in the claim case declaring the property subject, will not, upon the doctrine of res adjudicata or former recovery, bar an action against the creditor in her favor for money of her's which the creditor received from her husband in discharge of a note given by the husband for a part of the purchase money, the creditor knowing that the money which he received was her's.

5. The wife having no power to consent to the application of her money to her husband's debts, has no power to ratify such application, even on compensation being made to her by her husband in property, without the allowance or approval of a court of chancery, or of the superior court of the county of her domicil.

6 Until such allowance or approval is had, the property conveyed as compensation is not the property of the wife absolutely, and unless she actually derived an income from the same, or had the use thereof to the exclusion of her husband, she is not chargable with rents or profits. Such title as rests in her is provisional and dependent upon future allowance or ratification by the court having competent jurisdiction.

7. If the creditor of the husband to whom the wife's money has been paid has any claim upon the wife for rents or profits of the property conveyed by the husband to the wife as compensation, it is only by way of subrogation to the husband's rights, and in order for the creditor to recover such rents or profits, whether by action or by plea in the nature of cross action, the husband must be a party, and the evidence must be such as would establish a liability, either at law or in equity, in favor of the husband against the wife.

8 Evidence sufficient to warrant the verdict.

Judgment affirmed.

W. A Hawkins, Guerry & Son, for plaintiff in error.
John R. Worrill; Simmons & Simmons, for defendant.

James N. West et al. vs. Thomas West et al. Equity, from Decatur.

JACKSON, J.

1 In equity the superior court of the county where some of the defendants reside against whom substantial relief is prayed has jurisdiction, though the object of the bill be to set aside the sale of stock in a manufacturing company, located in a different county, and which stock is designated in the code as realty.

2 Where interrogatories have been received properly by the clerk in open court, and the entry thereon was not made at the time when received, the court may allow him to make the entry nunc pro tunc upon clear proof from him and others that they were so received by the clerk.

3 Unless the portion of the charge of the court which is excepted to be copied in the grounds of the motion for a new trial on which error is assigned, or so plainly referred to in the entire charge, where that is appended, as to be clearly ascertained from the record, it cannot be considered by this court for the reason that it cannot be understood.

4 If evidence be admitted which would not probably change the verdict, a new trial should not be granted though its admissibility as a naked question of law be doubtful.

5 The law of the case was substantially given to the jury, and there is sufficient evidence to support their finding. In such a case a new trial will not be granted by this court over the judgment of the presiding judge.

Judgment affirmed.

Peabody & Brannon; Gurley & Townsend, for plaintiff in error.
Fleming & Russell for defendants.

Thomas G Bryan vs. Welch, Cook Bacon et al. In equity, from Lee.

JACKSON, J.

Certain exceptions to an auditor's or master's report were demurred to, and it was agreed that the presiding judge should hear and determine the demurrer, "but that he should not do more than pass upon the same," he having been of counsel in the case; the judge thereupon held the demurrer good and dismissed the exceptions, and ordered the auditor's report to be received and entered upon the minutes of the court, and thereupon, at the same term, entered a final decree in the cause without further consent:

Held 1st; That the final decree so entered was not embraced in the agreement of counsel; and hence, that the judge, having been of counsel had, no legal power to make it, and it must be annulled, under section 205 of the code.

Held 2d; That the judge of the superior court, acting as that court and subject to the review of this court, must have power to hear and determine the whole case, and if parties only agree that he shall hear and decide a part thereof, he is a mere referee of theirs, and his action upon the matter referred is not subject to be reviewed here: therefore whilst we set aside the decree which the court was disqualified to render, we decline to interfere with the judgment of the referee sustaining the demurrer and dismissing the exceptions to the report.

It is due to Judge Crisp to say that in his verification of the bill of exceptions he adds the following: "The counsel for Bryan had left the court before a decision was made on the demurrer, after the decision was made and the decree entered, counsel for defendant in error called the attention of the court to the fact that perhaps the agreement only extended to passing on the demurrer, and then agreed in open court that if counsel insisted on that the decree should be set aside, and the judgment of the court extend no further than sustaining the demurrer, Immediately after the adjournment of the court counsel were notified of this."

Judgment reversed.

Guerry & Son, for plaintiff in error.
B P. Hollis; Warren & Hobbs; Allen Fort, for defendant.

William Usry vs. Saulsbury, Respass & Co Foreclosure of crop lien, from Sumter.

JACKSON, J.

1. An averment that "since the said sums became due, the said Saulsbury, Respass & Co., by their agent, the said James M. Bateman, have demanded payment thereof of the said William Usry," is a sufficient averment of a demand upon Usry as the owner of the crop and maker of the lien, the fact that he was such and that Bateman was the agent of the plaintiffs appearing elsewhere in the affidavit to foreclose the lien.

2. If it appear from the date of the judgment of foreclosure and of the levy that the execution must have been issued between those two dates, and that every step was taken in time to foreclose and enforce the lien, the omission by the clerk to date the fi fa. is not fatal to the case.

3. A draft, signed by William Usry and endorsed by him and addressed to Saulsbury, Respass & Co., Macon, Georgia, and promising to deliver to them cotton enough to pay it, or in default of such delivery to pay the sum specified to them, is sufficient to bind Usry as the maker and endorser thereof, though made payable to the order of blank—the blank being left unfilled with the word "myself."

4. A levy upon corn in February 1874 under an execution issued upon the foreclosure of a lien upon the crop of 1873, is sufficient, especially when it is pointed out for levy by the defendant

5. The other objections made in the bill of exceptions are not true in fact, as appears from the record. Sec. 13th Ga. 55.

Judgment affirmed.

Hawkins & Hawkins, for plaintiff in error.
Guerry & Son, for defendant.

James M. Wicker vs. J. S. Schofield & Son. Motion to set aside judgment, from Macon.

JACKSON, J.

A judgment will not be set aside on motion, if the defect, though apparent on the face of the record or pleadings be amendable, especially where the defendant appeared and answered the original suit and had his full day in court.

Judgment affirmed.

John R. Worrill, for plaintiff in error.
No appearance for defendants.

John T. Kelsoe vs. S. K Taylor & Co. Illegality, from Sumter.

JACKSON, J.

1. In case of the death of the presiding judge and the verification of the bill of exceptions under section 4255 of the code, the plaintiff in error must use diligence to prosecute his case to the next term of the supreme court, and if it appears on the face of the record that the counsel drew his affidavit on the 6th of July, and delayed to take the oath until the 26th of July, and thereby lost a term, and no satisfactory reason therefor appears, the writ of error will be dismissed.

2. In such case the verification of the counsel for the plaintiff in error must be supplemented by that of "at least one disinterested member of the bar who was present at the trial," and the affidavit of such member of the bar must be certain both as to his presence at the trial and to the facts certified to be true; otherwise the case should be dismissed on this ground also.

Bill of exceptions dismissed.

John R Worrill, for plaintiff in error.
Cook & Hollis, for defendants.

L. A. Jordan vs. Samuel Carter. Complaint, from Sumter.

JACKSON, J.

On a motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered testimony it must appear that the movant used diligence to procure the testimony on the trial, and that the same is not cumulative merely.

Judgment affirmed.

Vason & Davis; W. A. Hawkins, for plaintiff in error.
C B. Wooten, for defendant.

The Constitution.

ATLANTA, GA.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 6, 1878

ONE of Grant's brothers has become a lunatic. Isn't it Orvil?

IT is said that the ideal statesman sleeps in Mr. Evarts's bed, and wears the secretary's striped stockings.

ORVIL GRANT has developed brains enough to entitle him to a place in the lunatic asylum. Gone to meet Leet.

THE secretary of state is too busy with his law cases to take any part in the campaign. Gorham should investigate this.

WITH no army, what would we do with our Shermans, our Sheridans, our Howards and our Popes? The outlook is indeed gloomy.

"ABOLISH the army!" says the New York Sun sententiously. Good heavens! What will Tecumseh Sherman do with his horses? This is a very absorbing question.

UNCLE DICK THOMPSON is reposing on his farm in Illinois. If the pope knew this he would be thundering at our gates. Whenever Uncle Dick dismounts from his favorite war-tub, the country may be said to be in danger.

MR. HEWITT again appears in the public prints. Congress should pass a law abolishing both Mr. Hewitt and Manton Marble. We can abide Henry Watterson—he is such a jolly customer withal—but the others can well be spared.

A SPECIAL dispatch from Milledgeville to THE CONSTITUTION was received last night, but in the hurry attendant upon the issue of our trade paper, was mislaid. The editorial comments thereon, however, announced the fact of Mr. Blount's renomination.

THE Angells all came from Massachusetts. Mr. Evarts should make a note of this and use it in his nine-volume essay on "New England Virtue." One of these beautiful beings recently flew away with considerable money belonging to the Pullman car company.

FROM every part of the seventh district comes cheering news of changes from Felton to Lester. The old men as well as the boys are closing up, and the doctor dare not meet the democratic nominee in fair debate. In the words of the poet "Let 'er roll!"

GENERAL P. M. B. YOUNG, of Georgia, and Mr. Thomas P. Stovall, formerly of Augusta, but now of St. Louis, were among the delegates to a convention held in Paris recently for the purpose of framing a Franco-American treaty of commerce.

CAN'T it be arranged some way to get Eli Perkins to attend the Atlanta fair. Editor Dana could probably spare him for a few weeks. The people of the sunshiny south ardently desire to rub noses with the man whose veracity has been in pickle ten years.

DR. FELTON claims to be a democrat but the campaign he is making is against the democracy. In none of his campaign speeches, as far as our information extends, has he said a word in favor of the party. It is all in favor of Felton as against the democracy.

CITIZEN SPEER proposes, if he is elected to congress, to supply his constituents with free liquor. This is a good idea. It is rather strange, however, that Citizen Speer doesn't propose to distill the liquor himself. A man with his patriotic impulses ought never to hesitate over a small matter like this.

G. WASHINGTON CHILDS, A. M., the great North American obituary bard, is in charge of Grant's foreign gifts, and takes great delight in showing them to strangers. Grant is the only American that ever made money in Europe by exhibiting himself free of charge. The tour of this eminent corruptionist has been ably managed by Adam Badeau and John Russell Young.

THE Athens Anti-Washerman says that Mr. W. W. Price, of Oconee, does not consider that his recent card has been "positively" denied by Colonel Billups. Mr. Price will, of course, put his own interpretation upon the statement made by Colonel Billups to a reporter of THE CONSTITUTION; but it is very plain that the sheriff of Oconee has been misled by the courteous language in which the denial of the democratic nominee is couched. It is emphatic and unmistakable.

AT the request of a number of prominent citizens of Athens, who appreciate his services as they should be appreciated at this juncture, Hon. H. H. Carlton has consented to re-assume editorial control of the Southern Banner. Dr. Carlton is one of the most eloquent, vigorous and versatile writers connected with the Georgia press, and the service he will render to the democracy of the ninth district is incalculable. We give him a most hearty welcome to the fraternity.

CITIZEN SPEER'S organ, the Athens Anti-Washerman, is of the opinion that THE CONSTITUTION is taking too much interest in matters in the ninth district. The Anti-Washerman should be consistent. Only a few weeks ago, Citizen Speer dipping his pen in the same communicative ink with which Smithy wrote his recent wonderful ballad, remarked editorially that wherever the circulation of THE CONSTITUTION was largest there the independent would receive his largest majorities. Surely Citizen Speer nor his striker has any right to complain, if, as he claims, its course is gaining votes for independents. Above all things, the Anti-Washerman should be consistent.

A WARNING.

The decay of the Grant family has begun. Orvil has been carried to a lunatic asylum, thus becoming a dangerous rival of that other able republican whose surname is Leet. The occasion of Orvil's malady is undoubtedly the hue and cry raised about General Grant's candidacy in 1880, for which Deacon McKee, the noble ticket-of-leave-man of the St. Louis Globular Democrat, is partially responsible. Of Orvil, it may be said that he was one of the most prominent supporters of the third term movement, but somehow or other that vast intellect which is one of the most marked features of the Grant family, got the bulge on him, and his fate was sealed. It is very sad, but it should be a warning to the intimate relations of presidents and ex-presidents. Mr. Hayes, we believe, has no brother.

AID FOR THE SUFFERERS.

The news from the fever-smitten districts embodies an appeal to the charitable at once urgent and eloquent. Although benevolent hearts and hands are busily engaged in devising and administering relief, the plague is so widespread and the suffering of such an extraordinary character, that any interval or interlude in the work of relief would be disastrous. The charitable of Atlanta have been active and industrious, but much remains to be done. Our city is still behind other Georgia cities in the extent of her subscriptions, and it is incumbent upon us to urge our people to still greater expectations. THE CONSTITUTION fund affords perhaps the readiest and most convenient plan of alleviating the distresses of the unfortunate people of the fever stricken towns, and the lists of the fund will be left open as long as there is necessity, for extending aid. Contributions left at any of the hotels for THE CONSTITUTION fund will reach us, or they may be left at this office. Contributions by those outside of the city may be sent by mail.

GRANT AND THE CORRUPTIONISTS.

The hue and cry for Grant on the part of republicans is the most natural thing in the world. It is an admission of weakness, but the admission has been forced out by circumstances, and now, not only the office holders and beef eaters who grew rich under the administration of the Galena galoot, but many republicans who, on one ground and another claim to be respectable, are earnestly in favor of reseating the man who above all others has led modern American politics into the ways of infamy. Speaking for a large portion of the democracy, we may say that the nomination of this man would be hailed with delight by the party. He is, in many respects, the weakest candidate that could be put forward—his very strength being an element of weakness. The very qualities in his character that endear him to the bummers, sutlers and political tramps that form a large majority of the republican party, also wrought disgust among honest men—a disgust that finally culminated in the election of Samuel J. Tilden. These same honest men, who make up an overwhelming majority of the people, will welcome the nomination of the leading republican corruptionist. The country has never yet had an opportunity to rebuke the dishonest and fraudulent practices that marked his administration. Such an opportunity his candidacy would furnish, and if the republicans have any regard for the wishes of the people they will make this man their nominee. The democratic campaign will be against the fraudulent and corrupt practices of the party in power, and they desire nothing better than that Grant be made to do duty as the figure-head of the opposition. His record and his reputation are fraudulent, and he is the man, above all others, to lead the corrupt republican party to defeat.

THE ISSUE IN THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.

The Columbus Enquirer appears to be for Felton mainly because the editor is of opinion that the Ringgold convention was packed to shame him, or something of that kind. The editor of the Enquirer claims to get his information that the convention was packed from Hon. B. H. Hill, but we do not remember that Mr. Hill has ever even hinted at such a thing. On the contrary, Mr. Hill advised Dr. Felton to allow his name to go before the convention—taking precisely the same ground THE CONSTITUTION had taken weeks before. We advised Dr. Felton to submit his name to the convention and predicted that he would receive the nomination. But it was all to no purpose. He preferred to fight the party, and the advice of neither Mr. Hill nor THE CONSTITUTION weighed a feather with him. When the convention assembled, so anxious were the democracy to heal the breach that he was approached and asked if he would allow his name to go before that body, and his reply was that he would have nothing to do with conventions. He was then asked, plumply and flatly whether he would accept the nomination if it were tendered to him. His reply was still the same: "I will have nothing to do with conventions." These facts have been certified to by those who have approached Dr. Felton, and they have not been contradicted. They show precisely where Dr. Felton stands. They show that he is not striving to reform the democratic party. They show, on the contrary, that it is his fixed and unalterable purpose to break down the party, if he can, and erect upon its ruins an organization liberal enough to embrace those choice republican spirits who, under the lead of Majah Hargrove, of Rome, are working in season and out of season to overthrow the democratic party and further the cause of independentism. Dr. Felton is not opposed to organization. By no means. On the contrary, he is running around through the district endeavoring to impress upon his followers the necessity of organizing to break down the democratic party. That is the fight he is making, and that is what he hopes to succeed in doing. He has made it the issue in the seventh district, and it is the only issue. He spurned the overtures made to him by the democracy because he was determined to break it down and disorganize the party. He has had that end in view for years, and he has never faltered in his efforts. It is not a question as to whether Dr. Felton shall be endorsed. His record has never been attacked. The question is, shall the democratic party be broken down in order to gratify the splenetic ambition of one man? Shall the democracy be demoralized and dispersed in order to further the aspirations of a man who, cheek by jowl with such stalwart republicans as Majah Hargrove, of Rome, is striving to build up a new party in Georgia? We are induced to believe that the editor of the Enquirer has not given careful thought to the situation in the seventh district. It is not simply a question of party discipline. We do not oppose Dr. Felton merely because we believe Judge Lester is his superior in many important respects. We have no prejudice against the independent candidate. But it is a question as to whether the personal popularity of one man shall be allowed to override party fealty and make a breach in the ranks of the democracy that will finally extend to all sections of the state and of the south. Whatever may have been the doubt in the mind of the people as to Dr. Felton's motives heretofore there can be none now. Aided by Zach Hargrove and those who train with that redoubtable republican, he is endeavoring to break down the democratic party, and those who, in the enthusiasm of personal friendship, have been misled and decoyed by his extraordinary adroitness will live to regret the day that they countenanced independentism in Georgia.

—A member of the firm of A. T. Stewart & Co., told a reporter that prior to 1868 they were able to collect an average of 70 per cent. of their claims upon insolvent debtors, but that under the bankrupt law they did well if they got more than 20 per cent.

—Mr. Bower's process of protecting iron from rust by coating it with a film of magnetic oxide has been tried at Dudley, in England, and has proved to be of so satisfactory a character that there is reason to believe that henceforth iron structures may be regarded as practically indestructible.

—Secretary Sherman was very much pleased with his reception in Ohio. He was asked yesterday how much truth there was in Kearney's statement that the Toledo people did not care to hear him, and said that the interruptions in the opera house came from about twenty-five persons in the gallery and did not seriously annoy them.

—It is rumored that a split is impending in the Belgian clerical party. The constitutionalists will, according to a report, separate themselves from the extremists (or the party of the syllabus) and organize a Catholic constitutional party. The pope, it is rumored, is not unfriendly to such movements.

—The Danish Princess Thyra is a remarkably plain girl, but is exceedingly clever. The duke of Connaught aspires to good looks, and when, some two years ago, he was summarily despatched to Copenhagen by Queen Victoria with the distinct understanding that he was to propose and be accepted, he gracefully declined, and beat a hasty retreat. Thyra would have been only too pleased to make a good match, but should she get Prince Louis Napoleon she nets a desirable fish.

—A full font of Japanese type comprises sixty thousand characters, and when a compositor gets twenty to five or thirty wrong letters in a word, and the proof-reader overlooks them, they are scarcely ever noticed by the reader. The printer's case is distributed all around a big room, and when he is at work, running from one box to another, he looks like an American base-ball player making a run.—Norristown Herald.

—Kearney has come to a conclusion about the president and his cabinet, and this is the way he expresses himself: "Hayes treated me like a gentleman. The cabinet are a set of numb skulls. What one says they all swear to. Sherman is an infernal old scoundrel and everybody knows it. Schurz is a turnstile and doesn't amount to much." Kearney is going to New York, to Brooklyn and back to Boston. On the 11th he is going to pool his issues at a barbacue in Albany.

—A curious and exciting story has been most cruelly spoiled by an unromantic British consul. The story was that an English lady—of course young and beautiful, as she was adventurous—had gone beyond the limits of safety on the rocks at Biarritz, and she had fallen into a treacherous lake among the rocks and was drowned. But drowning was not her worst fate. The pool, or Palaise de la Mort, as it was called, was peopled by myriads of "barbots," which have such an insatiable taste for human flesh that within six hours nothing is left of the victim except the bones. Thus Miss Garland was not only drowned, but eaten up by barbots. The whole story, barbots and all, turns out to be a myth. The British consul declares that it is entirely without foundation. He says there is no such pool as Palaise de la Mort, nor any insects called barbots.

Gen. Eli Warren on the Situation

PERRY, GA., August 31, 1878

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I thought I would say to you, although a matter of little or no interest to you, that I am decidedly pleased with the position of your paper on the two leading and exciting questions that now agitate and threaten the disorganization of the democratic party of the state—and indeed of the United States. I allude to the financial question and the question of independent candidates for office. You are beyond all question right upon both these questions. What is the use of a greenback party outside of the democratic party? It's only use is, and its effect will be, to weaken the democratic party and lessen its power to do good and strengthen the radical party and increase its power to do only evil, judging, as we should, by its past conduct and history. That party has brought by its bad conduct the country to what it is, financially and morally, and can we expect of them, if they get in full power again, a remedy for the evil they have brought about? Surely not. Or would you apply to a man who had poisoned you for an antidote or remedy for the poison he had himself administered? No sane man would do that. And it is, I fear, sought by the prime movers in this separate greenback party, by the aid of the radicals, to put the true democratic party in a minority, and therefore powerless to correct the financial troubles of the country, or keep the government in the hands of honest men and from under the control of thieves, plunderers and most willfully corrupt falsifyers. The radicals are rejoicing at the position of the greenback party and of the independent candidate party, because they see and know that without the aid of these two shameful elements that their power to destroy is gone forever, and this must be seen and known by them and the pretended greenback democrats who are co-operating with them. They, the leaders of them, are all after the spoils, and I hope but few will be misled by them. These independent candidates of our party, too, who and wherever they are, are working into the hands of the radicals, and are looking to them for and will get their support, and if by them and the greenback question they get into power, they will divide the spoils, and I have no doubt but there is an understanding to that effect among the heads of all of them. I have no respect for such a combination. I see you are trying strong to defeat that combination, and escape the consequences of its success. I am glad of it. I rejoice at your course. You are doing a good work—doing it well. I am with you most decidedly in feeling. I am too old to work—havin passed my three score and seventeen years—but I can and wish to encourag those who work to sustain the right and put down the wrong, hence I trouble you with this letter, approving your course. The arrogant course of Mr. Stephens—his independent course, has been wrong, and has done us harm. Our opponents see it, and know it, and thank him for it, and this he very well knows. He has ceased to command my respect. You, though, and others have been kind and conciliating towards him. Perhaps it was and is best. I do not see, though, how the people of the eighth district could pocket the insult offered them, and give him a eulogistic nomination, when just before he had said, in insulting terms, that if he was not nominated, he would regard it as the action of fools and tricksters, incapable of appreciating his unequaled and exclusive fitness for the position, and he would be an independent candidate. That strange position of his kindled the hopes of the radicals everywhere, and was a bad example to set. It helps Felton, Speer, Thornton and such men, who love office so much that they are ready to resort to any means to win it. We are having trouble in the fourth, and I fear we will have it in the first. Let us not have it in this.

ELI WARREN.

Correcting Some of the Bosh.
Gwinnett Herald.

We have not heard of a single man of any prominence in the district who was for Bell or Carlton who will not give Billups a cheerful support. There seems to be a wide spread misunderstanding of the position of the democracy of the district. Certain flippant writers seem to think there was a Bell party and a Carlton party; that is all a humbug. There was, and is a democratic party, and the individual members of that party had their preferences; some for Bell and some for Carlton, and some for other gentlemen; but, as democrats, they stood together, utterly opposed to Speerism, and would have supported any competent man who had been selected to carry the democratic banner. All this talk about a Bell and Carlton party is mere bosh.

Wallace's Reward.
Baltimore Gazette.

General Lew Wallace, of Indiana, has been appointed to succeed Axtell as governor of New Mexico. Mr. Wallace assisted in the great work of counting Florida for Hayes. He secures his reward at last and at the same time is withdrawn from Indiana in time to stop the organization of opposition to Godlove S. Orth, the claim swindler, who is running for congress in the ninth district. The work of reform goes on.

Spreading.
Courier-Journal.

The California blackguards style of oratory is spreading. The Rev. W. T. Ellis, of Worcester, recently used the following choice language to his hearers: "You low, mealy-mouthed looking wretches of the devil; you look as though you had but now hopped out of hell, and the devil had stuck you up against the fence to dry. It would make God's stomach sick to look at you." Hit 'em again.

Jobbing Them With a Thorn.
Washington Post.

As for ourselves, we merely reaffirm that the southern democrats will defend negro suffrage for the sake of the additional representative power it gives them, if for no other reason, and if anybody ever tries to disfranchise the negroes it will be the northern radicals for the sake of crippling the representation of their opponents.

Bennett's Yellow Fever Charity.
Baltimore Gazette.

Mr. Robert Bonner, of New York city, has given $1,000 toward the yellow fever fund. Mr. Bonner has been talked of for mayor of New York city, but not being a politician nobody can accuse him of selfish designs because his subscription is larger than James Gordon Bennett's.

Not Dead but Waiting.
Dalton Citizen.

The republican party in Georgia is not dead, but is simply waiting for an opportunity to strike; and it is even now striking at the vitals, as it were, of the democracy through the independent movement in this and other southern states.

Boutwell and the Other Bummers.
Philadelphia Times.

Boutwell also thinks Grant would be the best man for president in 1880. The unanimity among the members of the old cabinet is wonderful. Give us back our old commander, they cry with one voice, and give us back our offices, also.

The Frou-Frou of it.
New Orleans Picayune.

The truth is that all this hue and cry about the impoverishment of the country by the payment of southern war claims is only the frou-frou of the bloody shirt as it trails along from the attenuated ghost of a dead party.

After the Wrong Position.
New York Sun.

Mr. J. Madison Wells makes an appeal to the voters of the fourth district of Louisiana to send him to congress. He apparently overlooks the fact that it is their first wish to send him to the penitentiary.

Welcome to a Good Post.
Gwinnett Herald.

We welcome Mr. Clayton among us. He is a clever young man and a good poet. He will probably begin in a short time the preparation of a funeral dirge over the political death of an ambitious young man.

An Appeal to John's Memory.
Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Sherman should remember that forced resumption can not be maintained, except at a vast sacrifice to the treasury. The laws of trade will prove to be stronger than forced resumption.

A Plymouth Pupil.
Boston Post.

A boy tramp with a passion for kissing everybody who would let him was recently arrested in Washington. He should be educated for a deacon in Plymouth church.

Still Strengthening.
Boston Post.

Every day strengthens the long ago accepted fact that Rutherford B. Hayes is the weakest and most insignificant tenant of the white house that this country has ever had.

Howard Meets the Indians.
Washington Post.

It is reported that the Indians waited for Gen. Howard to overtake them the other day in order to ask whether he was really intending to fight Indians or not.

The Rosy Tints Fading.
Rome Courier.

The Felton men who have "staked their reputation" on Felton's election are beginning to look quite anxious. Things do not appear so rosy as they did in the beginning.

Butler Failing.
New York Tribune.

Butler shows signs of adding to his other blunders the fresh one of trying to be respectable. He always fails when he becomes dull and decent.

Hitting Butler a Biff.
Philadelphia Press.

Had President Hayes done his duty by the country he would have appointed General Butler to a good paying position on the other side of the globe.

Too Sultry.
Rome Bulletin.

Nicodemus Felton was invited to meet Judge Lester at LaFayette, but Nicodemus thought the weather too hot, and didn't meet.

New York Tribune.

Kearney is simply a puff-ball squeezed dry.

The Constitution.

ROUNDABOUT IN GEORGIA.

—Judge W. Milo Olin, of Augusta, will go to Memphis as a yellow fever nurse.

—In a few weeks Georgia may be said to be the fairest state in the sunshiny south.

—The Gainesville North Georgian, bright, newsy and piquant, has entered upon its second year.

—Those of our subscribers who desire to add their mite to the yellow fever fund may send their contributions to THE CONSTITUTION and they will be duly acknowledged in our columns. A dollar or two goes a great way towards relieving the sufferers.

—The Rome Courier says it is a noticeable fact that in almost every part of the district a large majority of the young men are supporting Judge Lester. They have none of the prejudices of the past hanging to them, that cause an old man here and there to act contrary to his better judgment.

—The Rome Courier gets encouraging news from all quarters of the district. Changes to Lester are reported almost every day. Sometimes one man, sometimes two or three, and sometimes "whole families." We know of a recent instance of a family of eight turning, and of thirteen changes in one district in another county, which added to those heretofore reported make twenty-three in one small district.

—The Talbotton Register says that a gentleman named Wm. Hickman, formerly a citizen of Talbot, but now of Upson county, was baptised into one of the Talbot Primitive Baptist churches on Sunday, the 26th instant. After being baptised he proceeded on his return home and stopped for dinner at the home of a friend in this county, his wife being with him. After dinner he felt bad and lay down on a pallet, and his wife sat down beside him and began to fan him. He had been in that position but a few minutes when he turned over and died without a struggle and without a word or groan. Heart disease or appoplexy had done its work and the creature's soul was in the presence of its Creator four hours after its admission into the church militant. The death was a strange and sudden one.

—Sandersville Courier: On yesterday afternoon, during the rain and thunder storm, which visited us between three and four o clock, Silas Heath, who resided about five miles from town, was picking cotton in his field near the house. He quit the field and sought shelter from the storm under a neighboring pine tree. Lightning struck the tree, killing him instantly. There was a colored woman working in the same field, who was looking in the direction of the tree when struck, and saw Mr. H. when he fell—face forward, Dr. Mathis of this city, was sent for immediately, who arrived after Mr. Heath's body had been removed to the house. Silas was a clever young man, just in the prime of life, whose sad and sudden death will be greatly deplored by all who knew him.

—Milledgeville Union and Recorder: Ex-Gov. Joseph E. Brown has written a letter to our representative, Colonel James A. Green, strongly and heartily approving the proposition to establish a college in the old capitol building, similar in all respects to the one at Dahlonega. Gov. Brown is one of the trustees of the state university, and his support of the proposed branch institution at Milledgeville, gives great weight to the enterprise. The governor takes occasion to speak in very kind terms of the people of Milledgeville and vicinity, amongst whom he lived eight years, and thinks justice as well as the best interest of the state will require a location of a branch college in our city. In concluding his letter the governor says: "I can think of no other disposition that could be made of the property of Milledgeville that would be half so valuable to the state."

—Montezuma Weekly: On Sunday evening last, the 1st inst., a negro boy by the name of Gus Robinson, about 17 years of age, shot and killed another negro boy by the name of Will Wilson. The killing was done on the plantation of Mr. Wm. Burgamy, near May's bridge, in this county. The facts, as we learn them from Mr. R. T. Godfrey, who arrested the murderer and brought him to town yesterday morning, are about as follows: Gus Robison, the deceased and several children were playing in the yard, when Gus said was going to shoot Will Wilson, and entering the house procured the gun. He then went to the door, and without saying one word, discharged the gun at the boy. Will Wilson threw up his hands and commenced falling, when the murderer ran out, took him up in his arms and carried him in the house and then went for the doctor. The boy only lived a few moments after being carried into the house. The whole charge of shot entered his right breast. The murderer was arrested and acknowledged to the murder at the preliminary trial. He says he did it in fun.

Relief for the Afflicted

DR. M. W. CASE'S Liver Remedy AND BLOOD PURIFIER

Tonic and Cordial.

This is not a patent medicine, but is prepared under the direction of Dr. M. W. Case, from his favorite prescription, which in an extensive practice of over twenty-seven years he has found most effective in all cases of disordered liver or impure blood. It is

ANTI-BILIOUS.

It acts directly upon the liver, restoring it when diseased to its normal condition; and in regulating the activity of this great gland every other organ of the system is benefited. In Blood Diseases it has no equal as a purifier. It improves digestion, and assists nature to eliminate all impurities from the system; and while it is the cheapest medicine in the market, it is also superior to all known remedies. While it is more effectual than Blue Mass, it is mild and perfectly safe, containing nothing that can in the slightest degree injure the system. It does not sicken or give pain; neither does it weaken the patient, nor leave the system constipated, as do most other medicines.

It Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Bilious Fever, Headache, Sick Headache, Water-Brash, Heartburn, Sick Stomach, Jaundice, Colic, Vertigo, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Female Irregularities and Weakness, all Skin and Blood Diseases, Worms, Fever and Ague, and Constipation of the Bowels.

In small doses it is also a sure cure for Chronic Diarrhœa.

Taken two or three times a day, it prevents Yellow Fever, Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Cholera, and Small-Pox.

HOW TO BE YOUR OWN DOCTOR. Use Dr. Case's Liver Remedy and Blood Purifier, a pleasant Tonic and Cordial. ANTI-BILIOUS.

And save your doctor bills. Only 25 cts. a bottle. It is the most effective and valuable medicine ever offered to the American people. As fast as its merits become known, its use becomes universal in every community. No family will be without it after having once tested its great value. It has proved an inestimable blessing to thousands who have used it, bringing back health and strength to those who were seemingly at death's door. Prepared at the Laboratory of the Home Medicine Co., Philadelphia, Pa. Price per Bottle, 25c. Extra Large Size, 75c.

Important to Parents and Guardians.

MOUNT DE CHANTAL

Academy of the Visitation

NEAR WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA.

PARENTS in quest of a first class school for their daughters, will do well to investigate the claims of the celebrated Academy. For thoroughness in every department of female education, Mt. de Chantal ranks pre-eminently high. Great attention is given to perfect the pupils in writing and speaking French with fluency. For those sufficiently advanced, it is the language of their recreation hours. The purity of accent and correctness of pronunciation acquired in this Institution have been a subject of surprise to the native Parisian. The renown for the superiority in music is so wide spread as to have made the Academy almost a national one. One feature, in particular, that should recommend Mt. de Chantal to the sensible parent, is the influence exercised to form the pupils to views and habits of economy, and to render them really practical and useful women of society in after years. Simplicity in dress is enforced by rule.

These facts, united ty the exceedingly moderate rates of board and tuition ($200 per annum), will we trust, secure to this school as large and desirable a patronage in the future as it has enjoyed in the past.

For further particulars apply for a prospectus to the Directress of Mount de Chantal Academy of the Visitation, near Wheeling, West Virginia. Refer to John H. Flynn, W. S. Thomson and General W. S. Walker.

The Organization of the Public Schools.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 4, 1878.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I observe a paragraph in your paper of to day—4th September—informing the public "that Superintendent Mallon had organized all the public schools in fine working order." Such information, if true, somewhat depresses me. I feel grieved for some of the board of education. They have my poor sympathies. The public schools for the past eight years have been ostensibly engineered by the board, so to speak. One of the members informed me that the day on which the schools were organized, he—not Prof. Mallon—"had worked so hard that his clothes were wet with perspiration." If the blood of the brave is never lost, it seems that "sweat" sometimes is, since Prof. Mallon gets all the credit for the labor of himself and the board. The board can afford to be overshadowed since their work is done gratuitously, while the superintendent gets eight to ten dollars per day to organize, and all the glory to boot. Did it ever occur to you what a great calamity it would be to Atlanta if Prof. Mallon should die! since it appears that no gentleman in our city or in Georgia—I might add in the entire south—is able to fill the place. New England charges the south with a distressing amount of ignorance, a total want of civilization. Let us by all means endorse the sentiment. Let us assure our New England friends that in all the south no head can be found wise enough to "organize" and run the public schools of Atlanta. We will feel better after making a clean breast, But suppose Prof. Mallon should die? What then? We can not fill his place when dead—then we shall be forced to import some one else from a colder climate—there is no civilization or talent, they say, in the south. Let me suggest, therefore—as the mass meeting to proclaim our civilization failed, and no funds have been provided—that the city of Atlanta take out a life policy of one hundred thousand dollars on his life for the benefit of his school, that in the event of his decease we may import some one else from a civilized land. G. T. DODD

The School Controversy.

The public school question is still the prime agitation of the streets.

THE CURRENT OF POPULAR FEELING

is very strong in favor of Mr. Mallon. He appears to be endorsed by all classes—rich and poor, cultured and illiterate. The public notes the fact—undisputed on all sides—that he has organized in Atlanta the best system of public schools to be found in the south, and that he is constantly improving them They see also that the opposition to him, in the board, has not preferred a single charge either against his character, his scholarship or his administration

AN UNPUBLISHED PIECE OF A SPEECH.

It will be remembered that none of the members of the board have made a single charge of any sort against Mr. Mallon. They have been pressed time and again to give their reasons and have always declined.

In the meeting the other night Dr. Spalding said (these words having been omitted from the report through lack of space on the night it was published)—"Why do not the gentlemen give in some charge against Mr Mallon or his administration? Why don't they furnish us with some reason for voting against him? I say here boldly, that if they will furnish me one charge that can be sustained—that reflects in the slighest degree upon Mr Mallon, either as a Christian gentleman, or as a superintendent, I will cast my vote against him? But I will not vote against a man who has Mr. Mallon's splendid record until some charges have been preferred against him." In spite of this appeal not a single charge was made, and Mr. Spalding took his seat as much mystified as ever should, in justice to himself, be distinctly understood. He sent in his resignation to the board upon the first appearance of opposition. Being sensitive and averse to appearing as pressing his claims, he insisted upon his resignation being put before the board. His friends and the friends of the school system as it stands, urged him, however, to allow them to make the fight, as they believed the integrity of the system was in danger. He consented, and that is just where the matter stands at present.

of the effort. All the proceeds go to the fever sufferers. There are no expenses—or at least, very few—connected with this noble effort to relieve the sufferers. Purchase a ticket at once and then get another for your wife, your sister or your sweetheart or your friend. Only fifty cents is charged for admission. Gallery only twenty-five cents. Reserved seats at Phillips & Crew's twenty-five cents extra.

Already many tickets have been sold, and to-day we hope hundreds of others will be taken.

Our people should fill the opera house. The cause which demands our aid is holy, and we should be thankful that we can help it in so agreeable a way. Let everybody come out.

A RIDE TO DEATH,

Fatal Accident near Stone Mountain Yesterday.

Yesterday morning Miss Jennie Quillian, of Indian Creek, in company with a lady and gentleman, was going to Stone Mountain to church It appears that the mule they were driving became frightened at some object on the roadside and

RAN FURIOUSLY

He pulled the buggy at a fearful rate along the road and at last ran against a tree, throwing Miss Quillian out. She fell with on the ground, She was senseless and died in a few minutes. The lady and gentleman with her were severely bruised.

FEARFUL FORCE

The accident is sad indeed, and we regret to chronicle it. Miss Quillian was a young lady highly esteemed by all who knew her. The sad occurrence has cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood in which Miss Quillian resided.

ATLANTA'S MAIL.

Figures for August.

By the kindness of ex-Governor Conley, our efficient postmaster we are furnished the following figures, which show the business of the Atlanta postoffice for August:

|---|---|
| 1. Carriers employed | 6 |
| 2. Delivery trips daily | 3 |
| 3. Collection trips | 3 |
| 4 Registered letters delivered | 886 |
| 5. Mail letters delivered | 66,095 |
| 6. Mail postal cards delivered | 17,348 |
| 7. Local letters delivered | 2,958 |
| 8. Local postal cards delivered | 4 589 |
| 9. Newspapers, &c., delivered | 41,137 |
| 10. Letters returned to the office | |
| 11. Letters collected | 41,919 |
| 12. Postal cards collected | 14,116 |
| 13. Newspapers, &c , collected | 3,440 |

These figures show a handsome increase over the figures of the same month last year in all the principal items. Atlanta gets more mail than any other southern city of anything like the same size. A comparative statement of our figures with those of other Georgia cities would show that the largest of them gets not much more than half as much mail as we do.

Death of Mr. Joseph Winship.

Wednesday night at 10 o'clock Mr. Joseph Winship died at the residence of Mr. C A. Pitts, his son-in-law, of softening of the brain.

Mr. Winship was one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, and was known to all who knew Atlanta's growth and rise.

Mr. Winship was born at New Salem, Massachusetts, August 29, 1800, and was therefore 78 years old. In 1820 he came south and went to Jones county, Georgia, where he lived for many years

In 1851 he moved to Atlanta and built a machine shop where the Kennesaw block now stands on Forsyth street. Since that time he has ever been a prominent citizen of Atlanta.

He has for many years been a leading member of the First Methodist church, of which he was a trustee. There has seldom been a more liberal citizen or a better hearted man in our community. He was highly esteemed by all and loved by the many who knew him well. He was the father of eleven children, nine of whom are now living. His sons are among our leading business men. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock to day, at the First Methodist church. Mr. Winship will be missed here sadly. He was one of the old landmarks. He lived a good, true life, and died a peaceful Christian death, and has gone to his reward.

A Good Appointment.

From a circular received from Col. Foreacre, general manager of the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line railway, we notice the appointment of Mr. R. D. Carpenter as general freight agent of that company. Mr. Carpenter enters at once upon the discharge of his duties.

From 1870 to 1874, Mr. Carpenter held the responsible position of general freight agent of the New Orleans and Mobile railroad, with headquarters at New Orleans. After resigning this position accepted the office of general freight and passenger agent of the Jacksonville, Pensacola and Mobile railroad, and resigned this for the purpose of accepting the office tendered by the Air-Line.

This appointment demonstrates the determination of the management of this road to place in position officers that will not only advance the high standard of the line, but add to the social attractions of this community by this addition, and that of Mrs. Carpenter, who comes from a highly respected family of New Orleans We welcome them to our city.

Too Pure for Fever.

It is well remembered that some days since Dr. John G. Westmoreland kindly cared for a poor fellow who came here from Memphis with yellow fever. He gave him all possible help, and took him into his own room and slept there while the patient was in the last stages of a violent case of fever In such instances all danger of catching the disease is not past under fifteen days. Yesterday the fifteenth day expired and Dr Westmoreland is as well and hearty as ever

The incident proves that the air of Atlanta is so pure that the fever cannot be brought here even under circumstances most favorable for its existence and spread

We have a glorious blessing in our climate which we must not throw away through our folly.

Fruit Culture in the United States

Fruit culture is making rapid progress in the United States. According to the recent official statements, the land appropriated to this branch of industry is 4,500,000 acres. Upon this there flourish 112,000,000 apple trees, 28,000,000 pear trees, 112,270,000 peach trees, 141,260, grapevines. The total value of the fruit crop throughout the United States is set down at $138,216,700, an amount equal to half the value of the average wheat crop of the country. Toward that large sum apples are held to contribute $50,4000,000, pears $14,130, peaches $46,135,000, grapes $2,118,000, strawberies $5,000,000, and other fruit $10,433 000.

Lecture.

Last night Rev. J. J. Robinson, D.D., delivered his lecture on the "Tongue of Stone" at the Central Presbyterian church to an elegant and intelligent audience. Dr. Robinson is an easy and effective speaker and his style suits for a lecture admirably. He held the best attention of his hearers from first to last, and succeeded, not only in instructing them, but also in interesting them very deeply. The lecture is unique, sparkling and attractive every way. It was very highly appreciated.

A Live Establishment.

As will be seen by their announcement on the second page, the splendid printing establishment of V. P. SISSON & Co, are making extensive arrangements for a lively fall business. This is a home institution of which Atlanta has a right to feel proud. It defies competition north, south, east or west in good printing, and enjoys not only a vast home, but also a large foreign patronage We can vouch for its reliability, its promptness and good, honest dealing. Give Sisson & Co. a call.

Flax Bagging.

In spite of everything that has been written and said parties continue to bale their cotton in flax bagging. The consequence is that when it goes into market the cotton is either rejected altogether as unmerchantable or taken at a heavy allowance In order that the reason for the action of the Cotton trade of Atlanta may be understood, we give below the rule adopted by the New York Cotton Exchange:

"On and after Monday, September 2d, 1878, cotton covered with 'Flax Tow' Bagging containing shives or small pieces of straw or manufactured from unrotted or imperfectly rotted flax, shall be deemed unmerchantable and shall not be a good delivery in this market."

The Cotton trade of Augusta, Savannah, and other points, has taken action in the matter, condemning this bagging, so that buyers in the Atlanta market are obliged to take some action in the matter to protect themselves.

By taking a small piece of flax bagging and wetting it any person can soon see that the green ooze that is pressed from it injures the value of the cotton and gives legitimate cause for rejection. If planters, knowing these facts, continue to bale their cotton in this stuff when, for a few cents more on the bale, they can cover it with good material, can they blame anybody but themselves if they loose money by the operation?

A Blessing to Suffering Females.

Holmes's Liniment, when used for two or three weeks before confinement, produces a wonderful effect, causing a very easy and quick labor, with comparatively little pain, and leaves the mother in a condition to recover quickly—or, in other words, to have a good getting up. Under its use, labor will not ordinarily occupy one-fourth of the time, and the female will not suffer one-tenth of the pain usually felt.

The condition for which this remedy is offered is of such a character as to forbid a long array of certificates. Those interested in its use are referred to the hundreds who have used it.

An Acquisition

Since its virtues have been utilized by Dr. Tabler as a permanent cure for Piles, the Buckeye, now so abundant in our native forests, has become of almost as much importance in the medical world as Cinchena, or Peruvian bark, of South America. Fortunately the medical properties are in the fruit, and not the back; hence the trees will not be destroyed, but will stand many years to yield an abundant supply, and we may regard Tabler's Buckeye Pile Oitment as a permanent remedy. Price 50 cents a Bottle.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

For the next Thirty Days I going to offer to my customers and the public many lines of goods at

ASTONISHING LOW FIGURES.

I am not doing this to get rid of an old rubbish stock, neither is it to close out unseasonable goods alone, or stock bought at long time prices. My entire stock is known to be

New, Fresh and Very Cheap, even at former prices. But I do this because I believe the public will appreciate such drives and bargains as I am going to offer in some lines of goods, and the money for the same will enable me to put in a fall stock of heavy goods,

CHEAP, FOR MONEY IS KING.

I am placing in my stock new goods almost every day, and, in fact, my rapidly increasing business will not allow me to withhold orders even at this late stage of the season.

Come and see the New Goods and hear the prices, and I will satisfy you that the above announcement is no mere subterfuge thrown out to the people to gather a crowd. I advertise no goods but what I can show neither do I make any assertions through the papers but what I can prove behind the counters.

My Terms are Strictly Cash.

Thanking the public kindly for the liberal patronage bestowed, and soliciting a continuance of the same, I am, very respectfully,
